

House Resolution No. 3993

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge milestone events in the lives of Show-Me State residents who have proven down through the years to be exemplary citizens in local communities and neighborhoods; and

Whereas, Norby Corn of Oak Grove, Missouri, has distinguished himself through his selection for the Citizen of the Year award from the Truman Heartland Community Foundation; and

Whereas, Norby Corn is the manager of Corn's Apple Market, a family-owned-and-operated business that was founded by his father, Carl Corn, in 1952; and

Whereas, Norby Corn has developed and maintained an excellent reputation in light of his unstinting support for philanthropic activities, especially the support of nonprofit organizations and their fund-raisers; and

Whereas, Norby Corn also deserves mention of his lifelong involvement at First Baptist Church, where he is a member, deacon, and Sunday School teacher; membership in the Oak Grove Chamber of Commerce, for which he has served as president; and membership on the Oak Grove Park Board; and

Whereas, the beloved husband of Phamie since 1972, Norby Corn is the father of Amanda, father-in-law of Trent Skaggs, and grandfather of three children; and

Whereas, the Truman Heartland Community Foundation presents Citizen of the Year awards to worthy individuals who have been active in the fields of volunteerism, economic or financial development, business leadership, or cultural leadership; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives should pause in its diverse daily activities in order to recognize such outstanding Missouri citizens as Norby Corn at momentous times in life:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Norby Corn for a Citizen of the Year Award from the Truman Heartland Community Foundation and to convey this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued personal and professional success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Norby Corn of Oak Grove, Missouri.
